Mission

Lumber Land rescues discarded or uprooted trees and transforms their roots into gorgeous pieces of furniture.

We preserve the intrinsic beauty of each tree, merging craftsmanship and innovation to create sustainable products that delight and enrich the lives of our customers.

Vision

We aim to be a global leader in crafting unique wood pieces using natural trees.

We want to inspire our clients with a deeper connection with nature and promote sustainable designs while creating functional art pieces that enhance living and working spaces.

A close-up photograph of a large, intricately carved wooden sculpture. The wood is a warm, golden-brown color with a highly textured, weathered surface. The sculpture features several large, curved, leaf-like or petal-like shapes that appear to be part of a larger, more complex form. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the grain and texture of the wood against a dark background.

Our story is a tale of passion, artistry, and a profound respect for the roots that anchor us to the earth.

With each table and each wood product created, Lumberland whispered the ancient secrets of the forest reminding humanity of its profound connection to the natural world.
